

Why is the FCC going to override a particularly good Indiana law? It was deemed appropriate by the legislature of Indiana and has served well in its brief time of enforcement. Please leave the state legislature and its citizens to deal with commerce in our own manner. I agree with the Indiana statute as written and do not wish to see it changed by Federal intervention.